

Some notes and sites to explore from the YCAT topic on "Jesus' Teaching on Sexuality."

Spiritual Friendship: <https://spiritualfriendship.org/>

We embrace the traditional understanding that God created us male and female, and that His plan for sexual intimacy is only properly fulfilled in the union of husband and wife in marriage. However, this blog was born out of frustration with the prevailing narratives about homosexuality from those who embrace this traditionally Christian sexual ethic: an excessive focus on political issues, and the ubiquity of reparative therapy in one form or another.

Living Out: <http://www.livingout.org/>

To help Christian brothers and sisters who experience same-sex attraction stay faithful to Biblical teaching on sexual ethics and flourish at the same time.

To help the Christian Church understand how they can better help those who experience same-sex attraction to flourish.

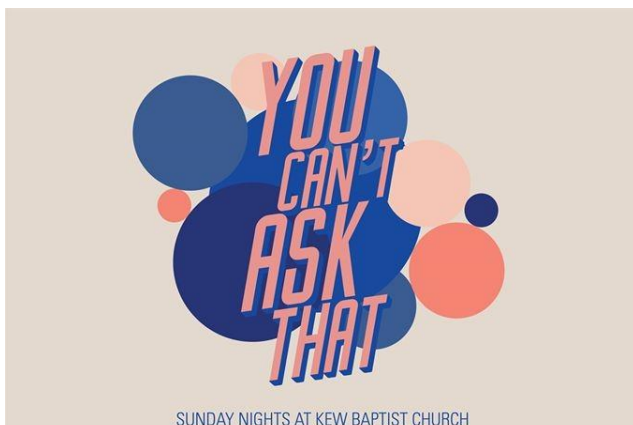

To help the wider world hear and understand that there is more than just one viable script for those who are same-sex attracted.

Rosaria Champagne Butterfield: <https://rosariabutterfield.com/>

A former professor of English and women's studies at Syracuse University, converted to Christ in 1999 in what she describes as a train wreck. Writes on sexuality and same-sex attraction from her own experience of being in a lesbian relationship for many years.
